

February Newsletter

Visit midcoastlibraries.com.au or ask library staff to join our mailing list.

In the branches with Chris Jones, Manager of Libraries

MidCoast Libraries will close on Monday 11 February for the annual library staff development day. Staff from all 11 library branches will come together for important training and future planning. Normal library services will resume on Tuesday 12 February.

Exhibition - Tea Towel Folly

Enjoy the great variety of over 50 unusual and beautiful tea towels, gathered from around Australia and the world.

Hallidays Point Library

Exhibition 21 Jan - 22 Feb

Children's Programs 2019

Baby Rhyme Time, Preschool

Storytime and Homework Help for school children will recommence week beginning Monday 4 February 2019.

Visit our website or pick up a flyer in your branch to find out more about these programs.

Note: new Baby Rhyme Time starting at Harrington on Tuesday 5 February - ask library staff for more information.

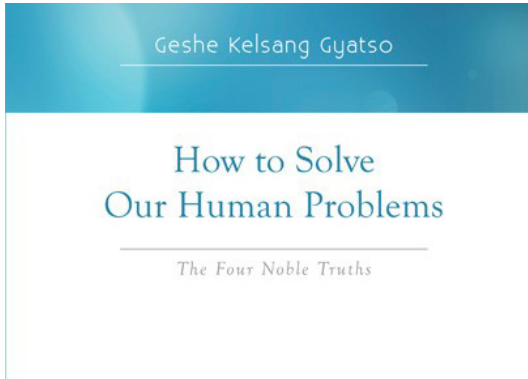

Exhibition of Creative Arts

A variety of work from the Creative Culture program; a social enterprise supported by community resources.

Forster Library

Exhibition 4 Feb - 11 Mar

Book Talk

Presented by meditation teacher Mick Marcon about Geshe Kelsang Gyatso's book 'How to Solve Our Human Problems'.

Bookings required.

Taree Library | Free event

Fri 8 Feb | 1:00-2:00pm

Book tickets on our website

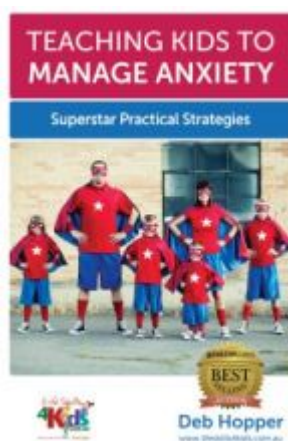

Celebrating Seniors

Seniors Festival | 13 - 24 Feb

Join in the fun with movies, technology workshops, meditation, music and health and lots more on offer across MidCoast Libraries.

Free events | Booking required

Book tickets on our website.

Book Launch

Join local author Deb Hopper for the launch of 'Teaching kids to manage anxiety; Superstar Practical Strategies'.

Booking required.

Forster Library | Free event

Wed 20 Feb | 6:00-7:00pm

Book tickets on our website.

Coming up in March...

Clothes Swap Party | Forster Book Talk: Mick Marcon | International Women's Day Taree | MidCoast Libraries systems become seamless