

June Newsletter

Visit midcoastlibraries.com.au to book all events.

In the branches with Chris Jones, Manager of Libraries

This year we celebrated Library and Information Week with The Great Books Festival featuring author Anna Fienberg and illustrator Leila Rudge, inspiring 1500 students across 13 schools. We also held National Simultaneous Storytime at Taree, Forster, Wingham, Harrington, Tea Gardens and Hallidays Point libraries all for the love of reading!

Understanding Addiction

Join Dr Julian Keats for this presentation in partnership with Greater Manning Myall Lakes Community Drug Action Team. This forms part of State Library of NSW Drug and Alcohol Hub.

Bookings required.

Taree | Wed 12 Jun | 5:30 - 7:30pm

Forster | Mon 17 Jun | 10:30am - 12:30pm

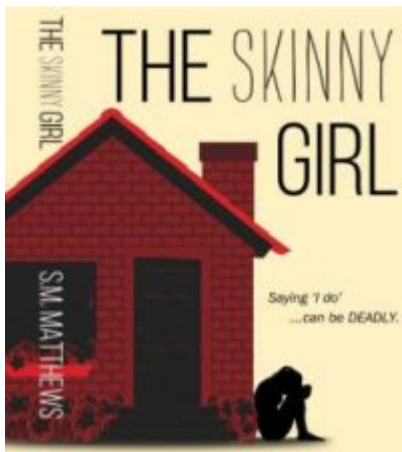

Company of Voices Concert: Love Notes

Come along and enjoy the excellent repertoire of this talented group. Sumptuous supper by the Friends.

Bookings required: 6591 7256

Forster Library | Tickets $15:00

Sat 22 Jun | 3:00 - 5:00pm

Author Talk

Join author S. M. Matthew as he shares his new book 'The Skinny Girl'. Raw, powerful and thought-provoking, exploring the hot topic of domestic violence, the ways attitudes, values and culture contribute to abuse and the path to change.

Bookings required.

Taree Library | Free event

Fri 28 Jun | 1:00 - 2:00pm

Author Talk

Meet popular author Lee Holmes for book talk on 'Supercharge Your Life'. Enjoy a demonstration and tasting of Lee's popular smoothie bowl.

Bookings required.

Forster Library | Free event

Sat 29 Jun | 2:00 - 3:30pm

Special Storytime Visit

Meet author Diane Pope & illustrator Phillippa Augl of 'Hardy', a story about a little calf who beat the odds. Check your branch for details. Gloucester, Forster, Tea Gardens and Stroud.

No booking required.

'A Journey' In the Gallery

Nature has always been a source of inspiration for Lindy Finlay's artwork.

Hallidays Point Library

Exhibition 3 - 28 Jun

Coming up in July...

School Holiday Program | Best-selling author Amanda Hampson: Forster | Clothes Swap Party: Harrington | Local Author Kaneana May: Taree & Gloucester |